Asking my Friends Questions

Sometimes I like to ask my friends questions. It is ok to ask them questions.

When I ask a question I will try to ask them one time only.

I will try to listen to their answer.

Many children get upset when I ask the same question more than one time.

When I ask only one time this makes my friends happy.