Faces and Loud Noises

When I am in the classroom some children make their face look different or make loud noises.

When this happens I will try to ignore them and just look at my teacher or I can tell them to stop.

The right place to make noises, make faces look different is in the playground.